

50 best white wines for summer

By Jane MacQuitty, Times wine critic

In my annual search for the best summer wines, I found that you'd be hard-pushed to find a decent bottle for less than a fiver. So it's nothing short of a miracle that the cheapest wine on my list, Sainsbury's house muscadet, comes in at just £4.50. If you're looking to stock up on good bargain wines, don't overlook the no-frills supermarkets. Aldi has a great Albariño for

2010 Chablis Vieilles Vignes, Sylvain Mosnier, Burgundy, France

The Winery (020-7286 6475), £18.99

This stunning, minerally 2010 chablis, with its terrific, tangy, verdant palate, reminiscent of hay, lemon zest and green cabbage, is a triumph.

Everything came together in Chablis for the 2010 vintage, producing full-flavoured wines underpinned by racy, mouthwatering acidity and superbly balanced to boot. Full of crisp, bosky, citrusy charm.
